

Robert Butler to Joel Childress, June 27, 1814, from Correspondence of Andrew Jackson. Edited by John Spencer Bassett.

MEMORANDUM FOR JOEL CHILDRESS.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Signed by Col. Robert Butler, Jackson's adjutant-general.

June 27, 1814.

Memmorandum for Mr. Childress

One suit of full dress uniform—one pair of Gold Epaulettes—one Chapeau—one pair Military Boots and Spurs—All of the best quality for Majr. General Andrew Jackson.

One full dress coat, embroidered on the cape. One pair large gold Epaulettes price 70 or 80 Dolls. One large yellow mounted Sabre; Belt and sword knot—one Chapeau—one pair of Military Boots and spurs—for Colo. Robert Butler Adjutant General who is 6 feet 1½ Inches high weighing about 240 lb. proportionately made.

Mr. Childress will endeavour to procure some Gentleman of this sizce and obtain his measure for the undersigned and oblige his friend And Humble Servt.

in Bills and Letters and Gold in all $538 Rcvd. murfreesboro. June the 29, 1814 of major Genral A. Jackson five Hundred and thirty Eight Dollars which I will Lay out as Dirreted in Philadelphia or Return the Same But not Anserable for Axidents or Losees

Joel Childress.